DR. JIM CUMMINS

DR. RAYMOND R. ISOLA

Raymond has thirty-five years of experience working in California public schools as a bilingual teacher and principal. He has served and collaborated with diverse communities that include a range of educational levels from preschool to the university. Experiences have included: teaching in an orphanage in Mexico, rebuilding indigenous communities in Guatemala after an earthquake, providing educational services to migrant farmworker children and families in eastern Washington and Monterey County, and teaching positions and principalships in rural, suburban and urban neighborhoods.

He received the Golden Bell Award from The California School Board Association for outstanding educational leadership to significantly increase high school graduation and university entrance rates for migrant farmworker students. In June 2012, he completed a 13-year tenure as principal at Sanchez Elementary School with San Francisco Unified School District. He received his doctoral degree from the University of San Francisco in International and Multicultural Education with an emphasis on social justice issues focused on closing opportunity gaps for marginalized communities around the world.
